Unique

How are we distinct

---

- We are known for (cont'd),
  - Professional Culture:
    - Plan-Do-Check-Act cycle
    - Continuous periodic training for labour force
    - Regular workshops and seminars for managers and leaders
  - Investing with Passion: we do not consider our business a source of profiting and conventional commercial matters, the proprietor-to-organization relation has flourished to consider our business a being that needs to be nurtured, developed and improved continuously, generating a sense of great pride and as a life accomplishment and milestone
  - Functional Empowerment: For the purpose of functional sustainability and continuous development, we strongly believe that functional and professional development are essential forces on every level. With the embracement of growing and rapidly evolving technologies, our employees are exposed to periodic training on handling and maintaining the operation of all technologies housed within our facilities.

Unique

Our Clientele

- Our ambitions have led us to partnering with clients that reach out to the conventional wholesale sector, whereby through the years, we have proudly partnered with chains of restaurants, and retail stores located throughout the Kingdom, and who are local establishments, in addition to globally popular supermarket chains and franchises

Investing in Technology

- To enable our operations, strategic planning, and forecasting on a continuous quest, we have planned for, implemented, and trained our employees to work on cutting-edge technology that roots throughout our company, and has become the necessary trend, common practice and cultural discipline to ensure corporate success on every level
- Our sales operations, warehouses, and distribution facilities have been integrated with award-winning technologies that coordinate and align our growing sales activities, operations and quality control, monitoring of activities, and remains to expand along with our strategic vision through its scalability and ultimately resilient platform, ensuring the adaptation to our growth and expansion plans and strategy.
- We have been capable of unifying quality control, multilateral communication and logistics operations into a complete massive network system with a global as well as nationwide network.

Quality & Value

- We have established powerfully integrated
  - Communication and distribution systems
  - Human Resources
  - Finance practices
  - with prime-quality equipment, machinery, logistics and computerized systems that ensure continuous proper order management, inventory control, supply efficiency, and communication, focusing greatly on Quality measures
- We further ensure our End-to-End Quality Control is continuously evolving to cope with rapid changes and consumer and Supply Chain demands and expectations. From supply and inspection, to distribution, and communication, our Globally certified Quality Control Strategy is intended to attend to market demands and management to a great level.

Quality & Value

- Our sales and marketing channels are only surpassed by our dedicated team of well-trained Customer Support representatives and experts who work tirelessly to make sure that all nodes of the Supply Chain, from Supplier to Consumer to Partner, are well accommodated and are heard at all times
- Value is another impacting element in our operations and sales, we interpret the meaning of value in two dimensions:
  - Value as commonly interpreted into monetary matters and defining reasonably priced raw materials and ready-for-consumption products
  - Another worthy dimension lies within quantities and quality of such materials and are reflected well to the consumer and where this proves customers realize value for money in our products, in terms of reasonable pricing, diversity of products, and a better choice for wellness and quality, the best of both worlds

Growth Strategy

---

- Through years of experience, we have grown to become the leading distributor of quality foodstuffs and related material & thriving to never stop
- Consumer market is growing and ever-changing accordingly there is a need to keep evolving and growing to satisfy the market
- We develop annual objective that yields a sustainable & lucrative growth, and it's based on three dimensions:
  - Market reach enhancement & expansion strategy
  - Operations and distribution optimization
  - Greater product expansion & development
